Pearson

Composition Task

You will compose two pieces.

Free composition

You must compose one piece that is a free composition, as outlined in the specification (GCSE Music (9–1) Specification, page 27).

You should use your imagination and skills to compose a piece of music. You can draw inspiration or starting points from the set works and suggested wider listening, as well as your own interests and the world around you. You should consider the role of the audience and/or occasion in your composition. The piece composed may be for any instrument or combination of instruments, acoustic and/or amplified and/or synthesised. The music may be in any style.

This document only covers the Awarding Organisation's set brief.

Set Brief

You must compose one piece of music based on one of the four briefs listed below.

You can draw on your knowledge of the set works, and any other pieces of music that you have studied and/or listened to, in order to help you think about the structure, style and features of your composition. Consider treatment of ideas, techniques and structures in your composition. You should consider the role of the stated audience and/or occasion in your composition.

The word 'instrument' includes voice (GCSE Music (9–1) Specification, page 36).

Composition briefs

Select one of the following briefs, and compose your piece of music according to the brief.

Brief 1 – Instrumental Music 1700–1820

Develop and extend a melodic theme of your own choice (either composed by yourself or from an existing source) for entertainment at a banquet. The music will be in binary form for a solo instrument and accompaniment.

- The piece should exploit the potential of the solo instrument and accompaniment.
- The accompaniment may be for one or more instrument(s).
- The instruments may be acoustic and/or amplified and/or synthesised.
- The music may be in any style.

Brief 2 – Vocal Music

Compose a song for a solo voice and accompaniment with a through-composed structure to be performed at a concert in a small venue.

- The piece should exploit the potential of the solo voice and accompaniment.
- You may choose any text or write your own.
- The accompaniment may be for one or more instrument(s).
- The instruments may be acoustic and/or amplified and/or synthesised.
- The music may be in any style.

Brief 3 – Music for Stage and Screen

Compose a musical soundtrack for a scene in an enchanted forest.

- The music will reflect the contrasting characters in the fairy tale as they explore the enchanted forest.
- You may use one or more instrument(s).
- The instruments may be acoustic and/or amplified and/or synthesised.
- The music may be in any style.

Brief 4 – Fusions

Combine the stylistic features of Indian classical music with Western popular music to create a track for a fusion album.

- You may write for one or more instrument(s).
- The instruments may be acoustic and/or amplified and/or synthesised.
